Krichbaum, Charles

Wednesday, March 19, 2003

Charles H. "Joe" Krichbaum, 85, of Chattanooga, died Saturday, March 15, 2003, in Panama City Beach, Fla.

Mr. Krichbaum was a lifelong resident of Chattanooga and was a member of Wesley Memorial United Methodist Church and its Fellowship Sunday School Class.

Mr. Krichbaum was a graduate of Chattanooga High School and the University of Tennessee.

He was a veteran of the U.S. Army, serving during World War II. He retired from RCA Whirlpool with over 40 years of service.

He was a son of the late Mayor W. H. and Bess Polk Krichbaum and was preceded in death by his wife, Ellen K. Krichbaum; and a brother, Edward P. Krichbaum.

Survivors include his sister, Nell K. Connally, Chattanooga; brother, Harry Lloyd Krichbaum, Knoxville; nephew, S. Krichbaum "Krich" Connally, Chattanooga; and three nieces.

Graveside services will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. in Hamilton Memorial Gardens with the Rev. Dale Gilbert officiating.

Charles Uren, Harold Torok, Louie Starnes, Randy Starnes, Harold Payne and Hugh Causby will serve as pallbearers.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Heart Association, Siskin Rehabilitation Hospital or Wesley Memorial United Methodist Church.

The family will receive friends from 5-9 p.m. Friday at Heritage Funeral Home, East Brainerd Road.
